

Belmont Abbey COLLEGE

Belmont Abbey College Faculty Elected To Greater Charlotte Healthcare Executives Group Leadership Roles

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Belmont, N.C. (January 30, 2023) – Belmont Abbey College announces the accomplishments of their very own Dr. Gwyndolan Swain and Dr. Caroline Hohensee, who have been elected into the leadership of The Greater Charlotte College of Healthcare Executives Group (GCHEG). Dr. Swain, the founding Director of the Abbey’s Master of Health Administration program, now holds the position of President for this influential organization and will be acting in accordance with the missions of Belmont Abbey and GCHEG, in the shared pursuit of excellence and virtue in healthcare. Her new role includes the promotion of transformative healthcare that begins with the cultivation of leaders who may advance the health services through exceptional management.

Dr. Caroline Hohensee, an associate professor of Belmont Abbey’s Masters of Health Administration, has been newly appointed Vice Chair of the Education committee in the GCHEG chapter. This role is characterized by special projects and support for the Chairperson in the mutual desire to enhance the education of medical administration.

The Greater Charlotte Healthcare Executives Group is an independent chapter of the American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE). Focused on the future of healthcare, this chapter is dedicated to improving health care delivery by cultivating exceptional leaders. The GCHEG is a local resource which works closely with the area’s local medical practices such as Regent, the Regent’s Advisory Council, and College staff. This organization works on both the local and national level in order to promote their vision for the future of healthcare.

Belmont Abbey College’s MHA program prepares graduates for service and ethical leadership in the healthcare community. Belmont Abbey is dedicated to providing students with the education and skill sets, rooted in Catholic and Benedictine tradition, needed in order to succeed in their personal and professional goals. It is with great pleasure that Belmont Abbey congratulates Dr. Gwyndolan Swain and Dr. Caroline Hohensee on this exciting opportunity for the MHA program, the GCHEG chapter, and for the future of the healthcare community. For more information on joining the Master of Health Administration program at the Abbey, visit bac.edu/mha.

Press inquiries can contact Rolando Rivas, AVP of Marketing and Communications, at rolandorivas@bac.edu. For information on all of the Graduate degrees offered at Belmont Abbey, visit <https://bac.edu/academics/graduate-studies/>.

About Belmont Abbey College: Founded in 1876, Belmont Abbey College is a private, Catholic baccalaureate and liberal arts institution. Our mission is to educate students in the liberal arts and sciences so that in all things, God may be glorified. Guided by the Catholic intellectual tradition and the Benedictine spirit of prayer and learning, we welcome a diverse body of students and provide them with an education that will enable them to lead lives of integrity, to succeed professionally, to become responsible citizens, and to be a blessing to themselves and to others. Our beautiful and historic campus is conveniently located just 10 miles west of Charlotte, N.C., and is currently home to more than 1500 students. For more information, visit <https://belmontabbeycollege.edu/>.