Belmont Abbey College Welcomes Jesse Dorman as New Vice Provost of Enrollment

Belmont, N.C. (June 24, 2024) – Belmont Abbey College is pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. Jesse Dorman as the new Vice Provost of Enrollment. Drawing from a wealth of experience with Catholic colleges and knowledge in online and graduate enrollment, Dorman is poised to make a significant impact on the college's enrollment efforts.

Dorman joins Belmont Abbey College from Peru State College, where he served as the Vice President for Enrollment Management. During his tenure, he successfully implemented strategies that resulted in enhanced enrollment and improved student retention. His dedication to student success and his commitment to the mission of Catholic higher education make him an ideal fit for Belmont Abbey College.

Dorman has served various leadership roles within numerous Catholic colleges, including Christendom College and Mount St. Mary's University, as well as Franciscan University of Steubenville. His extensive background in Catholic higher education will be instrumental in attracting students who align with the college's values and mission. As the Vice Provost of Enrollment, Dorman will be responsible for overseeing all aspects of the college's enrollment efforts, including recruitment and admissions.

"We are thrilled to welcome Jesse Dorman to Belmont Abbey College," said Dr. Joseph Wysocki, Provost of Belmont Abbey College. "His proven track record in enrollment management, combined with his passion for Catholic education, will be invaluable as we continue to grow and thrive as an institution."

Dorman's experience in online and graduate enrollment will also be instrumental in establishing Belmont Abbey College as a leading provider of quality graduate degree programs rooted in truth. With the increasing demand for flexible graduate-level education, Dorman's expertise will help the college meet the needs of the growing graduate student population.

"I am honored to join Belmont Abbey College and contribute to its mission of providing a transformative education rooted in the Catholic intellectual tradition," said Dorman. "There are a number of great opportunities to connect undergraduate and graduate students with the education found at Belmont Abbey College. I look forward to working with the dedicated team at Belmont Abbey to attract and enroll students who will thrive academically, spiritually, and personally."

Belmont Abbey College is confident that Jesse Dorman's appointment as the Vice Provost of Enrollment will strengthen the college's enrollment efforts and further its mission of providing a Catholic education of the highest quality.
