

JULIA DICKSON STOWE

CLASSICAL MUSIC ARTS AT THE ABBEY ENDOWED FUND

The Julia Dickson Stowe Classical Music Arts at the Abbey Endowed Fund was established to enhance varied areas of Belmont Abbey College. The Fund is named for Julia Dickson Stowe in recognition of her support of her three sons, Samuel P. Stowe III, Herman D. Stowe, and John C. Stowe, in their various musical studies as well as her support of classical music in Belmont and surrounding communities. She was a graduate of Sacred Heart College and an accomplished cellist and keyboard player.

History: Since 1992, the Associated Foundation, a small family foundation managed by Samuel P. Stowe III, has supported a program of classical music concerts at Belmont Abbey College. The purpose of this support has been to perpetuate the existence of a uniquely outstanding concert series open to the public. In setting up this endowment the foundation is ensuring the perpetuation of classical music concerts on the campus.

This Endowed Fund is a permanent endowment at The College. Additional monies are needed to bring the fund up to an amount large enough to generate revenue for part of the series. To date no money has been used on the regular series which continues to be funded by individual donations and the annual gift from the Associated Foundation.

Additional contributions to The Julia Dickson Stowe Classical Music Arts at the Abbey Endowed Fund can be made by any person, institution or corporation at any time. All monies paid shall become part of the corpus of The Fund.

Music at Belmont Abbey College

The college is pleased to announce the Performing Arts Department, (Theater, Dance and Music).

Carolina Pro Musica has been ensemble in residence at Belmont Abbey College since 2001. Founded in 1977 to promote performance of music written before 1800 through the use of historic instruments and/or copies and in the performance practice of the historic times, the ensemble is now in its 47th season of concerts in Charlotte. For several years, they have received funding from the NC Arts Council. Besides the Southeast, Carolina Pro Musica has appeared in concerts in Boston and London and several cities in Poland.

"a fresh bouquet of 18th century delights that no other symphonic or chamber group in town can deliver."

Perry Tannenbaum,
Creative Loafing
Charlotte NC.

"the level of expertise is always high in their concerts."
Bill Robinson, CVNC,
Raleigh, NC.

2024-25 Season

Concerts are at 8:00 PM

September 23, 2024 Pivetta Duo

The N.C. based husband and wife duo has extreme versatility, diversity and accomplishment from classical to jazz. This flute and piano duo will deliver the sounds of magical music! Music includes Tango by Jacob Gade and Jazz Variations on a Theme of Paganinni - Garson/Pivetta.

October 28, 2024 Queen's Six

Based at Windsor Castle, (England) members of The Queen's Six make up part of the Lay Clerks of St George's Chapel, whose homes lie within the Castle walls. This rare privilege demands the highest musical standards, as they sing regularly for the Royal family at both private and state occasions. Concert includes music from the Renaissance to contemporary works.

November 18, 2024 Winter Concert

Vocal and instrumental Abbey students and others share their talents through the college's ensembles.

February 3, 2025 Lopez-Tabor violin/piano duo

The duo that hails from Venezuela, returns to the Abbey having been here several times since their first performance twenty years ago. The program includes music by Brahms, Albeniz, William Grant Still and South American composers.

March 3, 2025 Celebrating Scarlatti

Join Carolina Pro Musica to celebrate Alessandro Scarlatti (1660-1725). An innovator, he wrote operas and hundreds of cantatas. His opera overture form led to the symphony. Music with strings, flute, oboe, harpsichord and voice.

April 28, 2025 Spring Concert

Abbey Schola, Abbey Chorus and instrumental students celebrate the academic year.
